CONFERENCE ON UNION

The Sessions of the First and Central Presbyterian Churches met last night to confer on the union of the two churches. All members were present and after a very free exchange of views it was the unanimous judgment of the conference that the two churches should unite.

By the Presbyterian system this must be ratified by the people and by the Presbytery in April.

These churches have been worshipping and working together for several weeks, and it is expected the union is consummated as mentioned above it will make a very strong church and should be a great power for good in this community.

COUNTERBLOW FROM HAIG NEAR

AMERICAN, FRENCH AND BRITISH TROOPS FIGHT SHOULDER TO SHOULDER NEAR ROYE.

Tenacity of British Resistance Surprise To German Generals—Giantic Reserve of Allies Preparing to Strike at Right Time.

London, March 26—Exacting the heaviest toll for every foot of ground, the British lines continue to withdraw slowly before the pressure of the German masses, Reuter correspondent at British headquarters wires.

Over a large part of the battle zone the retirement is being made voluntarily so as to maintain an unbroken front. Prisoners say the advance of the Germans is behind their schedule.

The tenacity of the British resistance the prisoners say, exceeded anything the Germans deemed possible. They complain of great privations on account of lack of supplies and extreme weariness also is telling heavily. Owing to the dense masses of supporting troops, however, the enemy is able to replenish his forward line with fresh units.

The weather remains dry, thus favoring the enemy.

British airmen last night made veritable pandemonium of every center of concentration of traffic behind the German front. Tens of thousands of rounds were fired point-blank into enemy formations, while airmen fulfilled effectively their role as eyes of the artillery.

Yesterday was the supreme day for the British gunners, says the correspondent. Attacking from north of Ervillers to the point of British contact with the French, the Germans were held up nearly everywhere by the ceaseless intensity of the British artillery fire.

Masses of enemy troops, which, coming forward in waves, again and again attempted to reach their objectives, met with the same fate as the Old Guard at Waterloo. In only one sector, near Sapignies, did they succeed in bending back the British front. It was to conform the front with this indentation that the British fell back during the night, straightening the line.

The battle continues on the whole front south of the Somme River, Field Marshal Haig reports from the war zone in France tonight. The Germans have also launched new attacks around Chaulnes.

Washington, March 26—An air of expectancy was apparent tonight among American and other military officials here who are following most closely the developments of the battle in France. They appeared to feel that a turning point in the terrific struggle was close at hand. Press reports from the British front hinted at the same feeling there.

For the people of the United States, the announcement by the British authorities that American troops are fighting side by side with French and British defenders brings the battle closer home. War department officials had no word from General Pershing on the subject but were expecting at any moment reports showing the extent of American participation.

With the slackening of the German peace, there comes indication that the allies are ready to strike back somewhere along the front. Just where this blow will be launched will not be known until it is struck, but it may be expected that its impact will be terrific.

It is known that the allied war council at Versailles created a great strategic reserve of men to be used in just the contingency which confronts the armies which have borne the brunt of the fighting since last Thursday morning.

This force probably will be launched when and where it is believed it will break the force of the German onslaught and send the enemy reeling back over the front from which the British have slowly withdrawn.

Each succeeding day reveals the plan of the Germans absolutely to crush the allied lines west of Cambrai, a terrain which could not be defended by Von Hindenburg a year ago. Each report shows that this sector is valueless from a military standpoint and that the Germans have paid a terrible price for their advance to the lines established by the allies during the last two years of warfare. It is officially reported that seventy German divisions, of 840,000 men, have taken part in the fighting and that troops have been moved from every part of the western battle front to reinforce the armies which have been forcing the British to fall back. Observers at the front say that the German losses have been frightful and that the enemy has lost from ten to twenty per cent of his men, by the most conservative estimates.

Attention centers here now on the French front rather than on the progress made by the Germans against the British lines. As the battle proceeds, officers here are becoming more certain that the defenders are carrying out a definite plan which the British withdrawal is a part, but which will prove soon to be coupled with a powerful counter thrust. The most probable place for the launching of such a movement, it was thought, was from the flanking position the French held tenaciously tonight along the left bank of the Oise.

CIRCUIT COURT

Petit Jury Reports and Several Cases Were Disposed of Yesterday.

The petit jury for the March term of the Mason Circuit Court reported yesterday and is composed of the following gentlemen: Thomas Comer, John Madden, Scott Stevenson, S. D. McDowell, Henry Eubanks, William Fitch, Early C. Jones, A. P. Bramel, L. G. Maltby, Thad Bullock, William Dersch, J. L. Bean, R. L. Cooper, Isaac Kurtz, John L. Davidson, Leonard Clary, Frank Peed, Julian Conrad, M. P. Redmond, Frank Gallenstein, Thomas E. Morris, Richard Bouldin, Elmer Bridges and Shelton Rhodes.

The case of the Commonwealth against Edward Rand and Irvin W. Sanders, which was sent from the Lewis county Circuit Court to the Mason Circuit Court on a change of venue, was called for trial yesterday morning and demurrer to the indictment was offered by the attorney for the defendant. The demurrer was sustained by Judge Newell and the indictments were quashed, but the cases were referred to the Mason County grand jury, and it is expected that new indictments will be returned by this body.

On motion of the Commonwealth, the case against Earl Jones, charged with stealing an automobile, was dismissed.

The indictment against Frank Carpenter for operating an automobile without a license was dismissed on demurrer of the plaintiff's attorney, a flaw in the indictment being found.

A. W. Thompson, indicted for standing a stallion without a license was fined $25 and costs.

The case of Morris Kirk and Irvin, indicted jointly for carrying away property of another, was called for trial and after hearing the evidence, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

There will be prayer meeting service at the Central Presbyterian Church tonight at the usual hour. The subject will be "Prayer." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

CONGRESSIONAL SHIRKING

From a recent Washington dispatch we take this interesting description of what the correspondent calls a "typical day" at the capitol:

"In the house, an unsuccessful effort was made to have that body resume consideration of the railroad measure which Director General McAdoo is pressing. But the chamber decided to sidetrack action on rails in order to consider a joint resolution 'authorizing the erection on the public grounds in the city of Washington of a statue of James Buchanan, a former president of the United States.' Those who favored action on the railroad bill began filibustering against the bill for the statue, with the result that two hours was spent in calling the roll for a quorum. When the house finally reached the point of passing the measure under consideration, it was found that it could not be enacted because an engrossed copy of it had not been received."

The senate wasted the day in similar trivialities.

Congress had been in session three months, and in all that time had enacted only on important piece of war legislation, the declaration of war against Austria Hungary. It had found time, though, to order an investigation of a visionary inventor's perpetual motion machine, and the construction of two bridges over rivers several thousand miles from the war zone.

Meanwhile there were pending such vital measures as these:

The railroad control bill.

The war finance bill.

Sixteen annual appropriation bills totalling $13,000,000,000.

The bill to extend food control.

The bill to provide money for building houses for shipyard workers.

The bill to draft men who have reached 21 since June 5, 1917.

The bill to co-ordinate activities of the various federal departments through authority of the president.

The country is getting tired of the interminable talking and putting of men who ought to be legislating for the big war. The country wants action.

The new casualty lists from France will henceforth be published without the home address of the men killed or wounded, because, it is said, the details might be of value to the enemy. We can hardly see why. There are probably a thousand John Smiths in the army—and of course, if that name should appear in a casualty list, the entire thousand had been killed. To that extent, the situation might prove confusing to the enemy. Put the fact that only one John Smith is killed and he the one hailing from Raleigh, North Carolina, can hardly be of great military value. The chief result of the new order of things is that all the families of all the John Smiths will be thrown into grief until they can learn which one of the thousand it is who has given up his life for his country.

WHAT YOUR BOND PURCHASE WILL ACCOMPLISH

The following figures give one a definite idea of what his or her loan to the Government by the purchase of Liberty Bonds will accomplish when used by the War Department:

One $50 bond will buy trench knives for a rifle company, or 23 hand grenades, or 14 rifle grenades, or 37 cases of surgical instruments for enlisted men's belts, or 10 cases of surgical instruments for officers' belts.

A $100 bond will clothe a soldier, or feed a soldier for eight months, or purchase 5 rifles or 30 rifle grenades, or 43 hand grenades, or 25 pounds of ether, or 145 hot-water bags, or 2,000 surgical needles.

A $100 and a $50 bond will clothe and equip an Infantry soldier for service overseas, or feed a soldier for a year.

Two $100 bonds will purchase a horse or mule for Cavalry, Artillery, or other service.

Three $100 bonds will clothe a soldier and feed him for one year in France, or buy a motorcycle for a machine-gun company.

Four $100 bonds will buy an X-ray outfit.

One $500 bond will supply bicycles for the headquarters company of an Infantry regiment.

A pedigree is all right, but even the man with a family tree might branch out for himself.

SCHOOL GIRL TELLS OTHERS

How They Can Find Relief From Periodic Sufferings.

Nashua, N. H.—"I am nineteen years old and every month for two years I had such pain that I would often faint and have to leave school. I had such pain I did not know what to do with myself and tried so many remedies that were of no use. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and that is how I found relief from pain and feel so much better than I used to. When I hear of how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me," DELONA MARTIN, 29 Bowers St., Nashua, N. H.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, therefore is a perfectly safe remedy to give your daughter, who suffers from such painful periods as did Miss Martin.

The reason so many girls write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice, is because from their 40 years experience they have a store of knowledge which is invariably helpful.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Hollis Needs The Ducking-Stool
Washington, March 25—The unwarranted criticism bestowed by Senator Hollis, Democrat from New Hampshire, on the Finance Committee in its work on the War Finance Corporation Bill brought forth merited resentment from the chairman of that great committee. Senator Hollis attitude was characterized as "a nagging course, nagging the committee, and heavy responsibilities, in a false position before the country." In using the word "nagging" chairman Simmons adopted the very descriptive that has been applied by fellow members of the bar in his own State to Mr. Hollis's manner of conducting court cases. He never seems to get away from a taunting, jeering, nagging course of conduct that has followed him during his Senatorial career. His colleagues on both sides of the Chamber are tiring of it, and the hope is expressed that New Hampshire, in the fall elections, will relieve the Senate of the annoyance that is now upon it.

Lufkin Takes Look See

It is charged by Representative Willford W. Lufkin of Massachusetts that the naval tug Cherokee, recently lost off the Delaware Capes with thirty members of her crew, was allowed to put manding officer. Information has come to Mr. Lufkin that Lieut. Newell, her commander, had reported the condition of his craft to the Navy Department. He was lost with his men, but his correspondence on the matter is available at the Department, and Mr. Lufkin has presented a resolution to the House calling on the Secretary of the Navy to produce it. He intends to ascertain whether the officials at the Navy Department were guilty of criminal negligence in permitting the boat to go to sea and risking the lives of her men.

Smoot's Guiding Hand

The work to be done by the capital issues committee created in the War Finance Corporation Bill will be greatly simplified and complications avoided by an amendment put into the measure at the instance of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah. It reads as follows: "Issues of shares or securities heretofore made, only a part of which has been sold or disposed of prior to the approval of this act, shall not be affected thereby." In other words issues of stock in process of flotation at the time of the passage of the act will not be brought under the scrutiny of the capital issues committee to determine if the issue is "compatible with the public interest." To give the committee power to stop the sale of a stock part of which is already in the hands of the public evidently would lead to great confusion and uncertainty, a condition that Senator Smoot's amendment will obviate.

Dale Will Not Fail

Much interest is being shown by the rural mail carriers of the country in the efforts being made by Republicans in Congress to secure an increase in their pay. Representative Porter H. Dale of Vermont has received communications from practically all the rural carriers of his State urging that they be compensated for increased cost of maintenance of equipment for mileage in excess of the standard length of 24 miles fixed by law, and for carrying pouch mail to intermediate post offices or intersecting loop routes. The latter service has been exacted of many men to save the cost of star routes. Mr. Dale has laid the petitions before the House, and will exert himself in favor of pending legislation for the relief of the rural carriers.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Maysville People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause.

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache, suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by people all over the country and by your neighbors in Maysville.

Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann, 605 East Second Street, says: "From the benefit I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills, I have every reason to recommend them. Whenever my kidneys have been irregular in action or I have suffered from weakness and lameness in the small of my back, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always proven sufficient to quickly cure and attack."

Mrs. Schatzmann is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Schatzmann uses—the remedy backed by home testimony, 60c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

The man who praises himself is never popular with the people who think he might be praising them.

A TRUMPET CALL

To the Boys To Enlist in the United States Boys' Working Reserve.

(By George Ade)
ten years from now, will be enjoying This is to the fortunate ones who, the benefits of what all future histories will call the Great War.

You boys who are getting ready to vote will know more about this war when you are plump and middle-aged than any one can possibly know this year.

When the dust has cleared away and the large events of the war can be seen from a distance, then you will understand that the issues involved had to be fought out, that the United States had to take part, that the task we are now undertaking had to be accomplished.

Let us hope that each of you can say, twenty years from now, "I was young at the time, but I knew what the war meant, and I helped."

Not all of the heroes are in the trenches. Perhaps you have heard about the Working Reserve.

It has been carefully organized under government supervision. It has received the official endorsement of the President. The whole plan is working out successfully wherever it is understood.

The trouble is that some of the boys and some of the parents are still a little doubtful regarding enlistment, because they don't know how much of an obligation is assumed.

Here is the plan in a nut shell: Thousands of enlisted and selected men have gone to the training camps.

It may be that thousands more will go next year. These men are being called from factories and work-shops and farms. Every factory and every farm must continue production if we are to render full service to our faithful allies during the war. How can we fill the places of the young men who have gone away to fight? We must rely upon the boys who are old enough and husky enough to work, but who are still too young for military service.

So here is a trumpet call for all city boys and town boys between the ages of 16 and 21. Prove your patriotism and help your country by jumping in and doing the work of a soldier who has gone to the front.

The United States Boys' Working Reserve is not being organized for lads who have to work for a living. Nearly every soldier now wearing a uniform could make more money at home.

You are not asked to work because you need the money. You are asked to work because your country needs your help and relies upon you to chuck aside false pride and join in the team work.

If your big brother can do ten times as much work as you can, why not try a Ledger Want Ad?

surely you can plow corn. Go to the recruiting officer and enlist for the Boys' Working Reserve. Then, when you are called upon, go and make good in the job assigned to you and win your medal and wear it and be proud of it.

When the government began to organize this voluntary service among boys, so as to meet the inevitable shortage of man-power, the skeptics and fault-finders got busy. They said that boys living in cities and towns never could be induced to work on farms that farmers didn't want to have the town boys around because they would prove to be green or lazy or indifferent, and the whole thing was a fool contraption.

Doesn't your common sense and your knowledge of addition and subtraction tell you that if we suddenly take 1,000,000 or more men right out of the country we must either find a million of the productive industries of this men to take their places or else go short of production?

Are we going to do as they have done in England—dress the women and girls in men's garments and put them to cleaning the streets and making explosives and wiping up locomotives in round houses and doing all the hard menial tasks? We mustn't come to that—not while we have on hand a whole army of young fellows between 16 and 21, nearly every one of whom has gone in for some kind of athletic sport and is physically able and would be as mad as a hornet if you told him he was a man's pet and not able to do a man's work.

The boys between 16 and 21 can and will supply the shortage of man-power. There is a loud call for them in 1918 and they must answer the call.

"GO TO WORK OR GO TO JAIL"

"The best way to draft farm labor," Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Clarence Ousley said not long ago in an address before the Texas legislature, "is for you to amend your vagrancy law so as to include within its terms every able-bodied man who does not do six days' work each week as a rule."

In many States of the Union, either by State legislation or local action, steps have been taken or plans are under way to require idle men to go to work. Farmers know they are not to increase their food crop production unless they have more labor. Town people know they will suffer inconvenience or want and have to pay very high prices for the reduced rations they are able to buy, if the farmers do not increase production. And both farmers and town people know, as all the world knows, that we can't win the war unless we have ample food. So, states and counties and towns the country over are determining that this is not a time, nor theirs a place, for the toleration of idlers.

For instance, a few weeks ago the sheriff of Grayson county, Texas, a thickly populated and highly productive agricultural section, announced in the Sherman papers and by posted proclamations that "every man must go to work." This sheriff didn't wait for the State legislature to enact new laws. The old ones are strong enough to suit him. "Go to work or go to jail," he said crisply. "No man will be allowed to loaf around this town or in this county, because we are at a point where every man's labor is seriously needed for the farms."

What about our county? What about our state? Are we requiring loafers to become producers? While your sons fight in France will we permit husky men to remain idle in our community, when you know their labor will produce food without which we can't win the war.
